GENUINE BAMBOO FURNITURE,

Dorcas a Monthly Magazine devoted to Woman's Handwork, contains plain directions for making all kinds of useful and decorative articles. Every pattern is tested by an expert, to prevent mistakes. Each number contains more technical material than can be purchased separately for ten times its cost to subscribers, which is One Dollar per annum. It has become a recognized authority among those who understand CROCHET- WORK, KNITTING, NETTING, EMBROIDERY, ART NEEDLE-WORK, etc., etc. Its suggestions with regard to both old and new industries for women, are invaluable. The latest novelties of the PARIS and BRUXELLES shops are illustrated PROMPTLY. Dealers in Yarns and Embroidery materials will find it very useful. NEWS DEALERS and POSTMASTERS will show SAMPLE COPIES. Send 10 cents for sample copy to P. O. Box 2295, NEW YORK CITY.

PARKINSON'S PHOTO PARLORS,

29 West Twenty-sixth Street, New York.

For a limited season, as an advertisement, in order to more fully introduce my work, I will make Imperial Cabinets, for which I now charge $8.00, with the same finish and expense, posing the sitter personally—two sittings for choice, and resittings if desired, for $5.00.
$8.00 for $5.00. $8.00 for $5.00.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE WITH ENTIRE FAMILIES.

Also "Sets" of Ten Persons, only $4.00 each per dozen, with one dozen free to Organizer of the "Set,"—same quality as the $8.00 work, using the most expensive chemicals, card mounts, etc., etc. No club work as ordinarily understood. In Brooklyn a large case of Parkinson's Photos always on exhibition, at CHANDLER'S, 172 Montague Street.

JUDGES' REPORT AT THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE FAIR, 1884-5: "We find in the exhibit of this artist (Parkinson, 29 West 26th Street, New York) a very meritorious collection of difficult subjects, especially of children, whose life-like expressions are very artistic and happily caught. We would like to see more of these subjects and methods among the Photographers of the day, and feel specially warranted in awarding to Mr. Parkinson the 'Medal of Taste.'—Judges' Report."

[This is the highest possible award in the Fine Arts, and Parkinson alone received it this year for photographs.]

INSTANTANEOUS PROCESS.

Photographs made for the late Chas. J. Folger, Thos. C. Acton, John A. Logan, Joseph R. Hawley, and others.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Allow me to say that in making this temporary reduction in my price, for the purpose of advertising my New and Novel Studio, I give the same personal attention that I give at my regular price. I do not keep the posing chair in one place, turning out the sitter, as it were, by machinery, as in case of some CHEAP places, but rather take time to study the face and lighting, making portrait, Rembrandt, or shadow picture as the subject may seem to require.
